

An Autobiography

Directions: The framed paragraph is a writing exercise. You are given the framework of the paragraph, hence the name. Blanks are provided throughout the paragraph so that you may mold the paragraph to your special needs. These blanks may be filled with one-worded responses, groups of words or several sentences. The blanks are all the same length so you will need to rewrite the paragraph in order to complete it correctly.

When I was born on _____ (date) _____, I was named _____. At that time, my family included (parents, older siblings, etc.) _____. We presently reside at _____ (address) _____.

An early childhood memory includes _____. (Add at least two more sentences that explain this memory.) As a child, I was happiest when _____. Now that I am (write your age in words), I worry about _____. (Write at least one sentence to develop this idea.) However, I always get excited about _____. (Add at least one sentence to develop this idea.)

My hobbies include _____, _____, and _____. Of these, my favorite one is _____ because _____. I would briefly describe my health as _____. (If you have any health problems, add at least two sentences that describe these problems.)

I chose to study the Business & Technology Pathway because _____; I hope to learn _____. When I graduate from high school, I plan to _____. Mrs. Hillery, before this school year gets underway, I would like to tell you one thing about myself. That is _____.

