3. You are in gym class playing basketball. Your opponents are a group of popular jocks. They start talking about a fight they are planning after school, to "teach some kids a lesson." They look at you after they say this and go back to playing.

Will you tell? _____

4. You get to school a little early one day. As you are going to your locker, you see Dylan, a kid is often bullied, putting what looks like a gun into his locker. He sees you and covers it up quickly.

Will you tell? _____

5. While you are standing in the lunch line with your friends, a sophomore cuts in front of a freshman behind you. The freshman pushes him a little. Everyone in your part of the cafeteria turns to see what will happen. The sophomore says "you can't do that, let's take this outside". The teachers are at the back of the cafeteria and do not see this happen.
